DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

With respect to the claims, the applicant has merely listed a catalogue of elements, absent any structural relationships between components. As such, the Examiner is unable to provide a rejection based upon the prior art of record, as it would require undue speculation on the part of the Examiner to determine the actual metes and bounds of the claims. It is suggested that the applicant carefully review the cited references, specifically, the claim language for use as a template. Note also how the applicant has structurally interrelated the components in the specification.

With respect to the preambles of each claim, the phrases “consisting of but (not) limited to”, “which consists of, but not limited to”, and “comprises of but not limited to” are improper and should be removed. Note the claim language of the cited references.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Schreiber et al #6,810,997, Sato #6,745,872, Gelman #6,672,428, Devine #6,626,265, Green et al #5,494,133, Tamietti #4,867,276, Hiraoka #4,722,422,
